NEW CITY CATECHISM, QUESTION 50

What does Christ's resurrection mean for us?

Christ triumphed over sin and death by being physically resurrected, so that all who trust in him are raised to new life in this world and to everlasting life in the world to come. Just as we will one day be resurrected, so this world will one day be restored. But those who do not trust in Christ will be raised to everlasting death.

EXODUS

Unqualified

Exodus 4:1-17

Big Idea: God is willing to use obedient people to do great things in this world so that everyone will see how great God is.

3 Objections to Obedience

1. Routine

2. Comfortable

3. Scared

LIFE GROUP LESSON, FEBRUARY 10-16

1. In 30 seconds or less, share the best road trip from your childhood.
2. Read Exodus 4. Looking back at this week's teaching, was there anything that caught your attention, challenged, or confused you? Anything you hoped we could talk about?
3. What do you think was the point of God's miraculous signs?
4. How can you relate to Moses' uncertainty about God's will? How much of your uncertainty is honest searching, and how much of it is making excuses?
5. Moses was given three tangible signs of God's power (turning Moses' staff into a snake, leprosy on his hand, and turning water to blood); we have the historical sign of the empty tomb. What is the advantage of tangible signs like Moses had? How is the empty tomb even better?
6. Do you think Moses was more uncertain of himself or God? Who are you most uncertain of- yourself or God? Why?
7. Name some ways that a lack of talent/abilities can actually be an asset in serving God.
8. What is the hardest thing God has asked you to do? How did you react?
9. What gifts or abilities has God given you? What excuses do you use for failing to acknowledge and/or use your gifts more than you do?
